J24 LATIN FOR BEGINNERS Face-to-face-class Class Full

Tutor: Paul York

Latin may well be the most important and influential language ever spoken or written by human beings. It has been in use for some 2800 years. It was first spoken by the ancient Romans around the 8th century BCE and first written by them a few centuries later. It was then in continual use throughout Europe as a lingua franca for scholars, merchants, the clergy, and the upper classes generally, right through to the Middle Ages and beyond. Latin is also notable for having spawned the modern European Romance languages, including French, Italian, Spanish and a number of others. Creek St, Monday 9:30am - 10:45am. Cost: $45 (prepaid).

K09 HOW TO PLAN AND WRITE A BIOGRAPHY Face-to-face-class

L55 LITERATURE IN CONTEXT Face-to-face-class Class Full

Tutor: Margaret Hill

We began 2024 with Simon Winchester's "The Surgeon of Crowthorne", and will move on to Pip Williams' "The Bookbinder of Jericho". Both these books are the result of extensive and fascinating research. Simon Winchester structures his material in a way that gives the factual story of the making of The Oxford English Dictionary the guise of a gripping narrative of "Murder and Madness". Pip Williams on the other hand creates a fictional narrative within the shell of extraordinary facts. We end the year with "Offshore" by Penelope Fitzgerald.

Adelaide St, Monday 11:00am - 12:30pm. Cost: $45 (prepaid).

Y03 EARLY BUDDHA DHAMMA Face-to-face-class

H11 THE KENNEDYS: THE PROMISE AND THE TRAGEDY OF THE 1960'S Face-to-face-class

NEW

Tutor: Quentin Beresford

The election in 1960 of John F. Kennedy as President of the United States symbolised the transition to a post-war generation. His assassination in November 1963 shocked America and the world. The course will focus on the Kennedy family and their times. It is set against the backdrop of Cold War tensions, the bitterly fought campaign for civil rights for African Americans, the threat posed by organised crime and the concern over entrenched poverty. JFK's promise of 'a new frontier' in American politics is examined. His handling of the Cuban Missile crisis will be a focal point. How good a president was JFK?

Adelaide St, Monday 1:00pm - 2:30pm. Cost: $45 (prepaid).

H24 HISTORY THROUGH THE AGES Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Ralph Carlisle

This class covers the broad spectrum of history over time. It is not restricted to any specific historical period. The class has a 'learning by doing' philosophy. Members are encouraged to contribute on history topics of their own choosing by researching the topic, then preparing their talk and presenting it to the class. Talks are typically an hour in length. Lively class discussion is strongly encouraged. Over the year, everyone has the chance to give a talk, if they so choose (it is not obligatory). In 2023, topics ranged from 'Shoot Straight You Bastards (Breaker Morant)' to 'Failed Invasions (Yuan China against Japan)'.

Adelaide St, Tuesday 9:00am - 10:15am. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

Y19 MATTERS ARISING Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Garth Sherman

The group members will raise and discuss issues or events that occur in our society, economy, history, evolution, environment etc. Members may read a paper or other media to inform the issues raised in the class. Members contribute to the discussion from their own experience, values and knowledge and research.

Adelaide St, Tuesday 9:00am - 10:15am. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

A20 BUDDING ARTIST GROUP Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Lesley Dalyell

This is a double class. We are a friendly group, concentrating on water colours. We learn together using various resources and access tutoring help from water colour artists when we can. Adelaide St, Tuesday 11:15am - 12:30pm. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

S12 SCIENCE AND THE BIG ISSUES OF OUR TIME Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Martin Gellender

Each week, the class will discuss the science behind the big issues facing Australians in the 21st century. Could Australia derive all its energy needs from renewable energy, and what would be the implications? Could humans colonise other planets? What are the implications if Australia adopts nuclear energy? Can food production be increased to meet rising demands of a growing world population? What are the key environmental challenges that will confront our grandchildren? Runs in conjunction with Zoom class SO3.

Adelaide St, Tuesday 11:15am - 12:30pm. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

X76 THEATRE THROUGH THE AGES Face-to-face-class Class Full

Tutor: Jane Lock

We are finishing our studies of Ancient Roman theatre with a selection of Senecan tragedies while learning about the Roman Empire in general. We will move on to early English plays after a period in the Dark Ages. Each student needs to provide a copy of the set texts and will hopefully be ready to contribute short talks on topics that increase our understanding of the authors and their life and times. We read the set texts around the class so that everyone is involved as much as possible. It requires a bit of concentration but is great fun. The class is kept small for good reasons, so please note that it is currently full.

Creek St, Tuesday 11:15am - 12:30pm. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

H07 BRITISH HISTORY- CONTINUING CLASS Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Judy Catts

We are now finishing the tragedy of the Wars of the Roses, and its devastating effect on the noble houses of England, and will soon be starting a new century and the wonderful Age of Discovery. In England, Henry Tudor has taken the throne as Henry VII, the first of the Tudor dynasty.

Adelaide St, Tuesday 11:30am - 12:45pm. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

U11 PSYCHOLOGY: EXPLORING CONTEMPORARY TOPICS Face-to-face-class

Adelaide St, Tuesday 1:30pm - 2:45pm. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

M03 POPULAR MUSIC SESSIONS Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Peter O'Reilly

Our main goal is to enjoy music in the company of friends and others (it can magnify the benefits of listening and some might even be inclined to dance!). Secondly, it is an opportunity to explore and learn a little about popular music (not 'Pop' music). For our purposes we will start from 1955 when Frank Sinatra and Nelson Riddle's, 'In The Wee Small Hours' quietly introduced the 'Album Era', though we may reference earlier periods. In this term we will have four sessions experimenting to see how we might run a full program. Fortnightly weeks 3, 5, 7, 9.

Adelaide St, Tuesday 1:30pm - 3:00pm. Fortnightly. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

CITY CAMPUS - WEDNESDAY

H14 HISTORY Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Sheila Leary

Class members choose their own topic of history that is of interest to them. The focus of that topic is immersion in the research, which can lead in all directions, using critical thinking. We are non-judgmental, you can give a straight talk, encouragement is given to follow up with a Power Point presentation if you so wish. With two talks each week, the topics are very diverse, not all serious, some humorous, expanding our knowledge, thinking and also giving cause for discussion. Our friendly class is welcoming and like most U3A classes we enjoy coffee afterwards with much lively discussion.

Adelaide St, Wednesday 9:00am - 10:45am. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

J68 LATIN - ADVANCED - LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE OF THE CLASSICAL PERIOD

Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Laurie Gaffney

The aim of the course is to enrich our knowledge, appreciation and enjoyment of both the language and the literature of the 'golden age' of classical Latin. An underlying premise is that in a close study of the literature, a deeper knowledge and understanding of the language is to be found. There are two elements to the course. The first is an ongoing survey and study of the literature of the period from Cato to Juvenal and Apulius. The works are studied in their historical, political, and social contexts. The second part of the course consists of the reading and reciting of Virgil's 'Aeneid'.

Adelaide St, Friday 9:00am - 10:15am. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

N12 CLASSIC MOVIES Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Vikki Londy

We view movies from various genres in the Classic period (by our definition 1930s to mid 1960s). Class members are welcome to take an active part in selecting and presenting their movies of choice. We can provide support in accessing movies from our library and can also assist with the equipment. Movie presenters provide an introduction to each movie with background information. Each week covers one movie from the Classic period, although sometimes the class may be a spotlight on a famous actor or director.

Adelaide St, Friday 9:00am - 10:45am. Cost: $50 (prepaid).

H27 MODERN HISTORY Face-to-face-class

J80 GERMAN - ADVANCED CLASS 2 Zoom class

Tutor: Ivar Stephensen

For those who want to develop their speaking, listening and reading skills in everyday German to an advanced level, or just maintain their skills at the advanced level. The class will use episodes from Video-Thema, a B2 level series from Deutsche Welle. The Video-Thema series is accessible online from Deutsche Welle at no cost and can be used with a computer, laptop, tablet, iPad or smart phone, via the following link:

<https://learngerman.dw.com/de/video-thema/s-55861568>

All class members get to speak and read aloud in German during classes. The course continues from the previous term, but places should be available for newcomers.

Online, Wednesday 11:00am - 12:00pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J58 SPANISH BOOK READING FOR BEGINNERS Zoom class

Tutor: Ania Beyer

In Term 2, 2024, there will be yet more MYSTERY! We have not chosen so far the title to read in April, May and June. But we know that it will be another adventure! Whatever book we choose, you will be able to find it on Amazon.com.au. If you have any questions about the course, please contact the tutor.

Online, Wednesday 12:30pm - 1:30pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J67 FRENCH - BASIC TRAVELERS' CONVERSATION - BEGINNER (EMAIL-BASED)

Tutor: Dominic Vu

This one-year course, for absolute beginners, is conducted via emails. It is suitable for members who can not attend face-to-face classes and are prepared to study the textbooks at home as guided by the tutor. The course is a study of the French language and French-speaking cultures, with emphasis on the development of communicative skills and basic structures. Term 1 of the course covered basic French for travelers. Textbooks: "Talk French 1" and "Talk French 2", published by Pearson. Note: this class and the face-to-face class J109 have the same content.

L02 READING CONTEMPORARY AUSTRALIAN WOMEN POETS Zoom class

Tutor: Judith Keller

Australian poetry today is in constant growth and evolution. There are new and emerging voices alongside Australia's accomplished poets. This class is for those who would like to read contemporary Australian poetry by women. Each week we will read a selection of poetry of Australian women poets from different cultural backgrounds, and pay attention to poetry's content, form, language and imagery. The emphasis will be on the multiple meanings we as readers may bring to a poem. Participants will need their own copy of the anthology, Best of Australian Poems 2023 (eds Gig Ryan and Panda Wong) to participate.

Online, Wednesday 1:30pm - 2:45pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

E13 ECONOMICS AND FINANCE FOR EVERYONE Zoom class

Tutor: Mark Davies

This class is about understanding economics and finance and how it affects our day-to-day life, looking at current local and international events, the changes which are occurring, and those which may be required in the future. Class discussions are based on four articles which are distributed in advance. Prospective participants are welcome to contact the tutor for class details.

Online, Wednesday 2:00pm - 3:30pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J187 GERMAN - INTERMEDIATE Zoom class

Tutor: Ivar Stephensen

For those who are already suitably competent in German and want to develop their speaking, listening and reading skills in everyday German to an intermediate level. The class will use a B1 level series from Deutsche Welle, either Top-Thema or Nicos Weg. Both series are accessible online from Deutsche Welle at no cost and can be used with a computer, laptop, tablet, iPad or smart phone, via the following link:

<https://learngerman.dw.com/de/fortgeschrittene/s-62079033>

All class members get to speak and read aloud in German during classes. The course continues on from the previous term, but places should be available for newcomers.

Online, Wednesday 2:30pm - 3:30pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J69 FRENCH - CONVERSATION FOR ADVANCED BEGINNERS (EMAIL-BASED)

Tutor: Dominic Vu

It is conducted via emails and suitable for members who cannot attend face-to-face classes and are prepared to study the textbook at home as guided by the tutor. Textbook: "Communication Progressive du Francais, niveau intermediaire, 2e edition". Note that this class and J179 have the same content.

C19 GMAIL AND ANDROID PHONE/TABLET Zoom class

Tutor: Harry Gilman

This course will introduce you to the Android OS and Google Experience. You'll need to have a Gmail account which will be your window to Google and Android. We'll briefly go over some of Gmail's features and settings, then move to the Android system - making you aware of the important security needs for your device. You'll learn what Android is, and how it works, the apps in the Google Play Store, downloading and installing apps/widgets, and introducing you to other Google apps, such as: Google Keep, Google Calendar, Google Drive, Google Photos, Google Docs, Google Maps, etc.

Online, Thursday 9:00am - 10:30am. 10 weeks. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

L04 LITERATURE IN CONTEXT (2) Zoom class Class Full

Tutor: Margaret Hill

We will begin 2024 with Simon Winchester's "The Surgeon of Crowthorne", and move on to Pip Williams' "The Bookbinder of Jericho". Both these books are the result of extensive and fascinating research. Simon Winchester structures his material in a way that gives the factual story of the making of The Oxford English Dictionary the guise of a gripping narrative of "Murder and Madness". Pip Williams on the other hand creates a fictional narrative within the shell of extraordinary facts. We end the year with "Offshore" by Penelope Fitzgerald.

Online, Thursday 9:00am - 10:15am. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

X16 BEEKEEPING - HOBBY ORGANIC BEEKEEPING Zoom class

Tutor: Joe Smith

This is a repeating course each term and each class is recorded, so you don't have to worry about missing any. In this course I introduce the basics of European honey beekeeping at home and include two classes on native bees. Preventing disease and managing pests of a honey bee hive would take an hour per month in spring and summer and you may get 20kg of honey per month. Note this class does not begin until 2nd May.

Online, Thursday 9:30am - 10:30am. Class starts 2 May. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J224 FRENCH - READ A NOVEL (GROUP 2) Zoom class

Tutor: Robert Ward

Members meet to read novels in their original French then translate/interpret in class, individually and in turn in English. Points of pronunciation, vocabulary and grammar may be discussed as we go along. The class is currently reading L'elegance du herrison.

Online, Thursday 10:15am - 11:30am. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

A06 PENCIL DRAWING Zoom class

Tutor: Geraint Morgan

It's a pleasure to be able to offer classes again, and to have the opportunity to help encourage and guide those keen to develop their pencil drawing. The title is broad, as I want to open it up for as many as possible and not feel constrained to a certain subject matter. It allows participants to bring some of their own ideas to the table and have an input into what we cover in the term. That said, there are certain fundamentals of drawing that we will aim to cover, including pencil techniques, values and shading, perspective and proportions, to create a solid foundation and build confidence in using pencil for different drawings.

Online, Thursday 1:00pm - 2:00pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

Y02 A JOURNEY INTO CLASSICAL GREEK PHILOSOPHY CONTINUED Zoom class

Tutor: Meredith Murray

Explore the captivating world of Ancient Greek Philosophy with our online format, complete with text, images, and fun cartoons. We journey on to investigate the thoughts of the Cynics, Epicureans, Sceptics, and Stoics. Time will fly with this quick-moving format which builds communication and reasoning skills and enhances critical thinking. You can choose to just listen, read, do or not do homework. Participation in Break Out discussion is optional. Please note that classes may run overtime depending on discussion.

Online, Thursday 1:30pm - 3:30pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J50 THAI - SPOKEN THAI FOR BEGINNERS Zoom class

Tutor: Joe Smith

This course is offered for the whole year and each class is recorded, so you don't have to worry about missing any. Thai grammar is very easy: there are no plural nouns and no different tenses of verbs. Numbers indicate plurals, and other words, such as "yesterday", show time/tense. Thai language is tonal, like Chinese, but it has an alphabet, unlike Chinese, because of the influence of India. We will focus on common spoken Thai. The text book will be on screen in the class, so you don't need to buy it.

Online, Thursday 7:00pm - 8:00pm. Class starts 2 May. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

C167 GMAIL AND ANDROID PHONE/TABLET Zoom class

Tutor: Harry Gilman

This course will introduce you to the Android OS and Google Experience. You'll need to have a Gmail account which will be your window to Google and Android. We'll briefly go over some of Gmail's features and settings, then move to the Android system - making you aware of the important security needs for your device. You'll learn what Android is, and how it works, the apps in the Google Play Store, downloading and installing apps/widgets, and introducing you to other Google apps, such as: Google Keep, Google Calendar, Google Drive, Google Photos, Google Docs, Google Maps, etc.

Online, Friday 9:00am - 10:30am. 10 weeks. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J73 CHINESE - MANDARIN FOR BEGINNERS LEVEL 2 Zoom class

Tutor: Joe Smith

This is a year-long course by Zoom for those continuing from last year, or who have studied some Chinese before. There is only one Zoom login for the whole year. Each class is recorded, so you don't have to worry about missing any. The textbook will be on screen, so you don't need to buy it.

Online, Friday 9:30am - 10:30am. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

E17 POLITICS AND THE ECONOMY - HOPES AND FEARS Zoom class

Tutor: Bruce Holdsworth

Amid fears and problems, our friendly group seeks hope and solutions. We use basic economics to consider topics including worsening Climate Change and Environmental Deterioration; Economic Developments (inflation, recession, financial crises, austerity, etc) and Technology (AI) and Education strains; Democracy in Danger via Money Politics and growing Inequality; Conflicts: Israel/Gaza; the USA and its allies vs China & Russia; Ukraine War, Nationalism vs Globalisation; COVID and its impacts; Social Divisions (rich vs rest, women's position, authoritarianism vs dissent, media bias, racism and bigotry) and their economic bases.

Online, Friday 10:45am - 12:00pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J60 MANDARIN COMMUNICATIONS Zoom class

Tutor: Ling Zhao

This course attaches great importance to the practicality of Mandarin, and the ideal outcome is that students can have a flexible use of Mandarin in their daily communication. This course will also facilitate students in Mandarin-speaking fluency, accuracy and pronunciation. If you are considering taking this course, it would be better if you are able to communicate in basic Mandarin (e.g. greeting, ordering, introducing oneself, etc.). The teaching materials will be tailored by the teacher to the language proficiency of the class.

Online, Sunday 1:00pm - 2:15pm. Cost: $25 (prepaid).

J02 RUSSIAN - COLLOQUIAL Face-to-face-class

Tutor: Greg Hausler

If you have some (even rudimentary) knowledge of the Russian language, and wish to try out some conversation with others, you are very welcome to join our friendly informal social group. We normally have some conversation practice and also translate a simple prepared text. Phone the tutor/co-ordinator to enrol. New members most welcome.
