STOP PRESS NEWS !! There are 6 (six) seats available for The Mouse Trap back on sale due to a couple of cancellations. If you are interested in any tickets could you please call the office and pay for them then let me know so I can post them out.

These are the last 6 tickets available in Brisbane as the show is totally sold out. Be quick!

War Horse: We have been allocated 30 seats for this brilliant stage production of a book written by Michael Morpurgo. The film, made by Steven Spielberg, would have been seen by many of the members last year was based on the Stage Play. The Horse was featured in the Queen's Jubilee River Pageant and close up it is an amazing creature with very clever puppeteers. The play has had a very successful run overseas winning 5 Tony Awards and 2 Oliver awards. It is only on for 1 month in July 2013.

When: 17th July 2013: Cost: $83.0: Time 1:00pm.

Call the office 3236 3055 to book for this riveting show

Expressions of Interest for Driving Miss Daisy: This well known play is coming to Brisbane for 3 weeks from February 5th 2013. We will need to have a minimum of 12 people interested in buying tickets at $73.00 for a matinee. The cast is the well known Angela Lansbury playing Miss Daisy and James Earl Jones as Hoke Colburn.

Please email me ASAP if you are interested. Helen Dubois hellsbells21@optusnet.com.au eBay Expert Wanted ! U3A Brisbane Computer Section requires a Volunteer Tutor for eBay. Over the past few weeks a few members have enquired about repeating the eBay course. The previous 10 week course on eBay in 2009 was well attended. Any future course can be adjusted to suit the tutor. Our computer lab setup can accommodate 10 hands-on students, and has a ceiling-mounted data projector with a large screen.

Interested persons please Contact: Gwenn Ball— Computer Section Coordinator
